Mt. Cuba

Dedicated to the Study of Piedmont Flora

Foreword by Blaine T. Phillips

Photography by Rick Darke

Text by Rick J. Lewandowski & Jeanne Frett

Hidden among the hilltops of the serene northern Delaware landscape is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered. Mt. Cuba Center, a 650-acre non-profit horticultural institution, was founded by Mr. and Mrs. Lammot du Pont Copeland and dedicated to their great love and admiration for native plants and gardening. This book, full of beautiful imagery and rich with details, will give you a snapshot of this amazing cultural institution.
